

BOOKWORM

PROJECT

The Bookworm Project is our new half-term homework challenge to all pupils.

Each child is asked to write a short book on a theme of their choosing.

This book can be either fiction or non-fiction, but each effort must be creative and interesting.

All completed books must be in by Wednesday 19th July to be in with a chance of winning a book voucher. There will be one winner in each class. On this day too, we will also share all entries with one another.

Each project must :

- Be in the child's best possible handwriting (no typed efforts).
- Be in the child's own words.
- Be well presented and show a good use of grammar.
- Have a decorative front cover and a blurb on the back cover.
- Include hand drawn and coloured pictures.
- FICTION—CREATIVE AND IMAGINATIVE.
- NON-FICTION—FACTUAL AND TRUE (must have a glossary, labelled pictures and a contents page).
